DepEd, Davao City LGU all set for World Teachers' Day celebration

DAVAO CITY, October 2, 2019 –

The Department of Education Division of Davao City in cooperation with the Davao City Local Government is gearing up for the grand celebration of the culmination of the World Teachers' Day at Davao City National High School on October 4, 2019.

To end the month-long festivity which kicked-off on September 5, Davao City Division headed by Schools Division Superintendent Maria Ines C. Asuncion, CESO V with the full support of the City Government of Davao led by City Mayor Sara Duterte-Carpio, collaborated to hold a splendid celebration for the unsung heroes of the society.

The blessing of the Child-Minding Center was also the highlight of the said ceremony to give a home-like place for the DepEd employees' children and ensure that they can continue to work better and with ease.

Honoring more than 10,000 teaching personnel of Davao City with the theme "Gurong Pilipino: Handa sa Makabagong Pagbabago," teachers will be treated to musical performances, raffle draws and a special live concert performance of a Manila-based artist.

The program will also highlight the talents and skills of teachers outside of their academic responsibilities. Rakrakan and pasiklaban ng mga guro will commence on October 3 and the winners will showcase their performance on the culmination program the day after.

A special gift from the City Government of Davao shall also be received by each teacher as a token of appreciation for their continuous service to the Filipino youth.

Deony M. Ferolino, the Division Focal Person for the World Teachers' Day Celebration, encourages all the Davao City teachers to join the festivity on October 4 as a way of communing with the other educators and showing the world how proud teachers are of this noble profession.
